

Claire Giry

IMI States Representatives Group

Claire Giry represents France in the IMI States Representatives Group.

Claire Giry was appointed Vice-CEO of Inserm (National Institute of Health and Medical Research) in January 2018.

Inserm is the only public research organization in France entirely dedicated to human health. Its objective is to promote the health of all by advancing knowledge about life and disease, treatment innovation, and public health research.

Previous positions

- In charge of the "Centers of Excellence" program of the Investing for the future national program, dedicated to excellence initiatives of the French universities from 2016 to 2017
- Deputy director of the Fundamental research division of the CEA - Atomic Energy Commission -from 2014 to 2016
- Responsible for national and international cooperation in Inserm - National Institute of Health and Medical Research - from 2012 to 2014
- In charge of the french excellence initiative national funding program in the Ministry for higher education and research from 2009-2012
- Technical advisor to the Prime Minister from 2007 to 2009 for higher education and research

Fields of expertise

- Doctor in molecular and cellular biology from Claude Bernard University in Lyon.
- Former student of Ecole Normale Supérieure (ENS) Lyon