

Ciarán Duffy

IMI States Representatives Group

Ciarán Duffy, representing Ireland in the IMI States Representatives Group, is a Senior Scientific Officer with Enterprise Ireland, Ireland's government organisation responsible for the development and growth of Irish enterprises in world markets in addition to being Ireland's national contact agency for EU Framework programmes.

Ciarán currently holds the role of European Advisor – EU horizon 2020 Research and Innovation Programme 2014-2020, and is one of two National Contact Point for Societal Challenge 1 (Health, Demographic Change and Wellbeing). Ciarán is also Programme Manager for the Active Assisted Living Joint Programme.

Previous positions

- National Contact Point, FP7-Health (2008-2013)
- Team Lead, Mylan Pharmaceuticals, (2007-2008)
- Technical specialist, Abbot Diagnostics (2005-2006)
- Senior Research Associate, National Centre for Sensor Research (2002-2005)
- Post-doc University of Minnesota, Minneapolis, US
- Post-doc at NRC, Halifax, Canada
- PhD in Analytical Biochemistry Dublin City University
- Partner and Work Package leader in EU FP7-Health project InterConnect

Fields of expertise

- Life science company start-up supports and business development - Member, Board of directors, Clinical Translational Research and Innovation Centre C-TRIC
- MEMS/Microfluidic device fabrication and design
- Analytical techniques for life science pharma industry
- Public funding