

Spiro Konstantinov

IMI States Representatives Group

Spiro Konstantinov represents Bulgaria in the IMI States Representatives Group and was nominated as the Group's Vice-Chair in February 2016.

Spiro has been working since 1994 as university teacher in pharmacology and pharmacotherapy at the Medical University in Sofia, Bulgaria. He has special focus on cancer research, molecular pharmacology and pharmaceutical biotechnology.

Previous and recent positions

- IMI State Representative Group since 2016
- Responsible lecturer in Pharmacotherapy for pharmacy students since 2008
- National Expert in Oncopharmacology
- Head of the Lab for Experimental Chemotherapy at the Dept. of Pharmacology, Pharmacotherapy and Toxicology
- Alexander von Humboldt, VW, DAAD and ÖAD fellow

Fields of expertise

- Antineoplastic drugs, cancer cell death induction, tumour environment and angiogenesis, rare haematological malignancies (e.g. CTCL)
- Professor at the Medical University in Sofia for Pharmacology and Pharmacotherapy
- Master in Medicine
- PhD in Pharmacology from the Medical University in Sofia
- Leader, Partner and Work Package leader in several national research projects