

Ina Kathrine Dahlsveen

IMI States Representatives Group

Ina Kathrine Dahlsveen represents Norway in the IMI States Representatives Group and was nominated for the position in June 2016.

Ina has been working since 2014 as Senior Adviser for biomedicine, biotechnology and medical technology at The Research Council of Norway. She is team leader for Health in the Division for Innovation which funds both research in industry as well as applied and industry oriented research in academia.

Fields of expertise

- Senior Adviser in the programmes Biotechnology for Innovation and User-driven Research Based Innovation at The Research Council of Norway
- National representative in ERACoSysMed – ERA-NET Co-fund for Systems Medicine
- Director, Marketing and Communication at Exiqon A/S
- Product manager at Exiqon A/S
- Post-Doctoral Scientist at Ludwig-Maximilians-Universität München
- PhD in Biochemistry from University College London and Imperial Cancer Research Fund
- BSc in Biotechnology with a year in industry from Imperial College London