

Olivier Laureau

©Jacques GRISON

Chair of the IMI2 JU Governing Board

President / Servier and the Servier International Foundation for Research

Olivier Laureau is President of the pharmaceutical group Servier and the Servier International Foundation for Research¹ since 2014.

In an environment of increasing competition, since his arrival, Olivier Laureau has undertaken an extensive transformation plan. One major aspect of this strategy is the development of drug portfolio, especially through a dynamic partnership policy and strong international expansion.

Olivier Laureau has built his career within the Servier group since 1982 starting with the Intellectual Property Department, followed by the Legal Department where he was responsible for international contracts. In 2000 he joined the Finance Department and, in 2008 he was appointed Chief Financial Officer.

As president of the Servier group, Olivier Laureau draws on his extensive experience gained during more than 30 years within the company, to serve the Group's vocation: committed to therapeutic progress for the benefit of patients.

Olivier Laureau is a board member of the G5 (association of main French healthcare companies) and Efpia (European Federation of Pharmaceutical Industries and Associations) and participates to the work led by IFPMA (International Federation of Pharmaceutical Manufacturers & Associations).

Olivier Laureau is a graduate from the Paris II Panthéon-Assas University where he studied private law.

Born in 1957, in his spare time he is interested in paintings from the second half of the 19th century and Japanese culture. He is married and has 5 children.

¹ The Servier International Foundation for Research provides governance of the Servier group.