

Ayşe Özge Gözay

IMI States Representatives Group

Ayşe Özge Gözay, representing Turkey in the IMI States Representatives Group, is a Scientific Officer with TUBITAK, which is the leading agency for management, funding and conduct of research in Turkey as well as the national coordination office of EU Framework Programmes.

Özge is currently the National Contact Point for Health, Demographic Change and Wellbeing (SC1) theme under Horizon 2020 Research and Innovation Programme (2014-2020) and acts as an expert in the SC1 Programme Committee. She is also involved with several Public-Public Partnerships supported by the Framework Programmes and is a management board member representing Turkey in JPI Antimicrobial Resistance, as well as a project partner in TRANSCAN-2 and JPco-fuND ERA-NET Cofund projects.

Previous Positions:

- E.U. Joint Programme Neurodegenerative Disease Research Management Board Member
- ERA-NET TRANSCAN-2 Network Advisory Board Member
- ERA-NETs TRANSCAN, E-Rare-2 and E-Rare-3 ERA-NET project partner
- Pursuing MA in Science and Technology Studies, Maastricht, the Netherlands
- Visiting Scientist and Molecular and Cellular Biology Master Student Heidelberg University, Germany

Fields of expertise

- E.U. funding
- P2P scheme
- Public research funding
- Science and research policy analysis
- Technology and innovation management in life sciences