

Hemma Bauer

IMI States Representatives Group

Hemma Bauer represents Austria in the IMI States Representatives Group.

In 2006 Hemma Bauer entered to work for the Austrian Ministry of Education, Science and Research and since 2010 she is Head of Unit for Life Sciences within the Section of Research and International Relations in the Ministry. Her responsibilities are research policies and support of Life Sciences and medical research on national level as well as alignment with European and international programmes/initiatives. As such she is member of various European and international committees (e.g. Programme Committee Health , IMI, EDCTP, BBMRI, EMBL, IARC/WHO). Hemma Bauer holds a PhD in Molecular Biology of the University Vienna and a degree in nursing

Fields of expertise

- Master of Microbiology of the University Vienna
- PhD of Molecularbiology of the University Vienna
- Experience in participating in EU projects