

Event: IMI impact on data, 9 June 2021

SPEAKER BIO

Mats Sundgren

Director Health Informatics
AstraZeneca

Mats Sundgren is a Global Health Informatics Director, Data Science & AI, BioPharmaceuticals R&D at AstraZeneca. His current expert role is integration lead for Federated EHR platform services and advisor for pragmatic clinical trials across science units.

Mats has a M.Sc. in Chemical Engineering, and a Ph.D. in Technology Management & Economics, from Chalmers University of Technology, Gothenburg. His PhD research aimed to increase understanding of management aspects of innovation and organizational creativity in Pharmaceutical R&D settings.

Mats has worked within the field pharmaceutical research & development for more than 25 years and had various roles within Discovery, Development, Marketing, and Patents & Patent defence coordination. Mats has also for the last 10 years been involved in strategic change initiatives in AstraZeneca and cross pharmaceutical industry in areas of Information and Innovation Management for life science.

Mats is the former coordinator for the IMI project EHR4CR, and also member of the board of the European Institute of Innovation through Health Data (i-HD). Senior Research Fellow at Chalmers University of Technology, and the IT University of Gothenburg, Sweden, in areas of innovation management, medical informatics and eHealth.

Mats has over 50 publications including patents, papers and books.