

Nils Olav Refsdal

IMI States Representatives Group, Norway

Nils Olav Refsdal represents Norway in the IMI States Representatives Group.

Nils is the Norwegian National Contact Point Innovative Medicines Initiative (IMI) since September 2018. He has been with the Department of Specialist Health Care Services in the Norwegian Ministry of Health and Care Services since 2015. Nils works with policy development in areas such as personalised medicine, biotechnology, health/biobank data and public-private partnerships in research and innovation.

Previous positions

- Senior Adviser – Norwegian Directorate of Health 2015-2016
- Senior Adviser – The Norwegian National Research Ethics Committees 2012-2015
- Research Coordinator/Analyst – Norwegian Directorate of Immigration 2006-2012
- Research assistant – University of Oslo – Department of Political Science 2004-2006

Fields of expertise

- MA in Political Science from the University of Oslo
- Public research funding
- Research ethics