

Marta Gómez Quintanilla

IMI States Representatives Group, Vice Chair

In January 2018, Marta Gómez Quintanilla was elected Vice Chair of the States Representatives Group of the Innovative Medicines Initiative (IMI).

Marta has been working since 2003 for the Spanish Centre for the Development of Industrial Technology (CDTI), a public company within the Ministry of Economy and Competitiveness. In this capacity, Marta's work is fully dedicated to Horizon 2020 in the EU Programmes Division, within the Directorate of International Programmes.

Previous positions

- Vice-Chair of the IMI States Representatives Group from 2011 to 2014
- Elected IMI Representative and Health Delegate for Spain in 2010
- Previous CDTI roles: National Contact Point in different themes (KBBE - Knowledge-based bioeconomy and Health); expert in KBBE; as expert in Health and for IMI
- Experience in the business development department at GENETRIX, a bio-pharma company, with public funding, fund-raising and management of research projects

Fields of expertise

- Master of Science in Biology, specialisation in Fundamental Biology and Biotechnology from the University of Oviedo, Spain
- Master in Biotechnology. Business Administration for Biotech Companies from ALITER, International Business School, Madrid, Spain
- Economics and Innovation Management and Technology Policy, Technical University of Madrid (UPM), Madrid, Spain
- Project Management
- Intellectual Property Rights (Spanish Patent Office)